Paris, May 2.

THE Repairs and the fitting up of the Apartments of Verſailles, requiring more Time than was at firſt ſuppoſed, it is now ſaid the King will not go thither till about the Middle of next Month. We have Advice from Madrid, that the Count de Aguilar having fallen under the Diſpleaſure of the King of Spain, had an Order ſent to him to retire from Court within twenty four Hours, to his Government, which he not obeying readily, his Catholick Majeſty ordered a Detachment of Guards to carry him to Corunna, where he is to be confined in Fort St. Antonio. The following Advices received by the Court relating to the Plague, have been communicated to the foreign Miniſters.

The Duke de Roquelaure in his Letter of the 20th of April writes that all the Gevaudan continues in a good State of Health: He had Advices the 10th, that ſince the 1ſt none had died or fallen ſick in any of the Places formerly infected: Nor had any been newly taken ill in the Sevennes or the Vivarais, except one Woman in a Houſe of the Pariſh of Jonas; but that Houſe ſtanding ſeparate from others, and all neceſſary Precautions being taken, it was hoped there would be no ill Conſequences. At Alais the Quarantain was continued with good Effect; from the 2d to the 18th none had died or fallen ſick, there remained in the Suburbs three Perſons who had recovered, and they were to be put forthwith under Quarantain: All Diligence was uſed in Perfuming and Airing the Houſes, and it was believed the Plague had wholly ceaſed there. None had newly fallen ſick in the Comtat; and it was judged that if the Diſinfection or Perfuming was performed there with proper Care and Regularity, any Relapſe might be prevented. The Biſhop of Alais writes the 17th, that no Accident had interrupted the Quarantain, and that the Diſinfection of the Infirmary would be finiſhed in a Fortnight. M. de Bernage in his of the 17th, 19th and 20th of April gives the ſame Account: Several Letters from Officers confirmed, that the Diſtemper was ceaſing every where. The Marqueſs de Brancas writes, that the Accident which happened at Marſeilles had not had ill Conſequences. M. le Bret in his of the 15th of April relates, that the Father of the three Children who died at Marſeilles, was alſo dead himſelf in the Lazaretto; but a Phyſician and Surgeon had made their Report, that it was of a Quinſey, and that having viewed and opened his Body, they had not diſcovered any Mark of Contagion. The Precaution that was taken to remove him out of the City into a ſeparate Houſe, was very proper however in all Events, having prevented Communication had the Diſtemper happened to be infectious.
